Join us for the

2017 PARTNERS IN CARE SUMMIT!

featuring nationally renowned child advocate Julie Beckett

Child and youth advocate Julie Beckett is a co-founder of Family Voices, a national grassroots organization of families and friends speaking on behalf of and with children and youth with special health care needs. She was instrumental in the 2005 passage of the Family Opportunity Act, which established the Family-to-Family Health Information Centers, now in every state and the District of Columbia.

She retired from the University of Iowa after 34 years and is currently co-chair of the Family Partnership Network with the American Academy of Pediatrics.

Beckett has published several articles and is the author of "Health Care Financing: A Guide for Families."
